

Sumbe- Gabela- Waku Kongo

Expanding the Angolan electrical network transmission lines to the rural areas of Angola. The project connects major cities in the province and allows the local population to benefit from the availability of electricity. The project includes more than 300 km of High Voltage Overhead Lines and 5 new Substations

